

Apron near misses

Full priority shall be given to moving aircraft (towed, pushed or moving under their own power) and to all aircraft with anti-collision lights on. Special attention and a sharp look out is required while driving on service-drives that cross taxiways and on service-drives passing behind aircraft stands. Please support us to create more awareness among airside staff and help us to express this message throughout the entire airport community. Awareness animation available via:

<https://youtu.be/BNPHa4USjFE>.